2009 Summer Defense Trade Export Licensing Conference

“Back to Basics”

This conference is an important first step to exporting defense articles and defense services. Newcomers to export licensing will be provided with a step-by-step guide to understanding the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR). Emphasis will be placed on the license application process and the requirements for submitting licenses to the US Department of State, Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC) for review and approval. Attendees will become familiar with the various types of licenses, agreements, exemptions and their appropriate use. Government speakers will provide insight into the procedures and policies governing the export licensing process. Scenarios will be utilized to help illustrate these policies and procedures and how they are applied within the actual workplace. Ample time for questions will be included each day. Information from these sessions is not for publication. Recording devices may not be used. SIA members and participants must abide by the SIA Code of Conduct.

Speakers will include participants from US Government agencies such as the US Department of State’s Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC), Defense Technology Security Administration (DTSA) and members of the defense industry. A special Roundtable Q&A Session with panelists and invited guests will be held on Day Two.

On Wednesday following the Conference, SIA is offering a one-day licensing workshop, “Where the Rubber Meets the Road.” This is a hands-on workshop designed for people new to the field of export licensing. Through a program scenario and collaborative exercises, attendees will apply the ITAR to “real life” export challenges in order to draft and submit various licensing and agreement requests.
